SCHOOL CONSULTANTS

Tamara Rosenberg is as connected on the European boarding-school circuit as any royal family. She places American kids at the best nursery and prep schools—Eaton House the Manor, for example ($500 INITIAL FEE; E-MAIL DIRECTOR@RIGHTSCHOOL.COM).

Emily Glickman, director of Abacus Guide Educational Consulting, has landed hundreds of children in premium kindergartens. An expert in the New York area, Glickman helped students gain admission to Buckley (for boys), Chapin (for girls) and Horace Mann (coed), among others. She also makes house calls (495; 212-752-2288).

SLEEP

Jean Kunhardt, the sleep specialist at SolHo Parenting in New York ($185 PER SESSION; 212-334-3744), helps infants (and parents) catch more winks.

THEATER

Puppetworks in Brooklyn, N.Y., is one of the few remaining old-fashioned puppet theaters in the U.S. (SATURDAYS AND SUNDAYS ONLY; ADMISSION, $7 FOR KIDS, $8 FOR ADULTS; RESERVATIONS REQUIRED; 718-985-3391).

TREE HOUSE

For $52,290, the little ones can have their very own Swiss Family Robinson-style tree house, designed by San Francisco-based artist and builder Barbara Butler (415-864-6840; BARBARABUTLER.COM). Less pricey play houses start at $3300.
